Winter Revival

Dear praying friends,
One word that comes to mind this winter is "snow" and more snow! We have had back-to-back storm events since January which has brought more than average snow fall this season. This led to our village declaring a disaster in the wake of snow removal beyond the city's capacity to handle. Despite the weather challenges, we have seen some good fruit to the ministries here.

The Winter Revival held in early January was such a blessing to the community and our family! God moved mightily in the meetings every night resulting in three coming forward for salvation and many more on the altar for prayer. One man we had been praying for about salvation came forward the last night of the meeting. I knew God had already been dealing with his heart about salvation and that night he received Christ! Praise the Lord!

The group from Navajoland had a warm welcome and did an amazing job singing and preaching to our folks! Thank you.

This summer is filling up quickly with ministry outreach plans. June is Bible Camp month. We plan on taking a few of the young people from our village to attend camps with our home church. This has been a tremendous help to those who have gone in the past. We also have equipment upgrades to install on the radio station this summer. This involves a new antenna and transmitter to raise our power output. We are excited to see this ministry expand to reach surrounding villages with radio broadcasting.

In August we are planning our annual VBS for our village. Also in August, we have the opportunity to partner with a missionary pilot in our region to distribute Bibles to villages in our reach. I am looking forward to going in person and putting Bibles into the hands of many individuals in our region. Prayerfully this will open up many doors to witness and have opportunity to return to these communities.

This will be costly in fuel to fly men and bibles to these destinations. We want to help with this cost by raising extra funds for this need. If each one of our supporters gave $50 towards this need it would go a long way in helping. Would you pray about what the Lord may want you to give towards this need?

Thank you for your faithful prayers and generous support!
