Dear Pastor and praying friends,

“...in him shall the Gentiles trust.” Rom. 15:12

We are indeed blessed to have a part in the greatest venture of these last days: the proclamation of the Gospel to the nations! Those who have long been in darkness and under the control of the Evil One are putting their trust in the promised “root of Jesse”; the Son will receive the uttermost parts of the earth as His inheritance! Our great commission is given by the true King who sits at the right hand of the Father and bids us go and make the Gospel known to the nations “for the obedience of faith”.

Ministry Update

Thank you for praying for the salvation of Srey Neet. After several weeks of wrestling with the decision to put her faith in Christ, Srey Neet came to meet Naomi and said that she was ready to believe in Jesus! Please pray that she would become a steadfast and unmovable disciple of Jesus in the face of scorn and opposition.

We have continued our salvation Bible study with Sok Van-ak after having to postpone it for several weeks due to holidays, family visits, and a funeral. Please pray for Sok Van-ak. He is very lost and has been blinded by the trappings of Buddhism and Animism for all 54 years of his life. Pray that the light of the Gospel would penetrate his darkness.

We have been encouraged by the faithful attendance of Rut and Srey Koo-ich at our Sunday morning Bible study. Rut (14) has been going through the Gospel of Mark on chapter at a time with Randy every Sunday. He is excited to receive his very own Bible after finishing the final chapter of Mark this Sunday! Srey Koo-ich has been very faithful since her salvation in February and is learning about prayer with Naomi.

Finally, please pray for Randy as he teaches a session at the upcoming Pressing Forward Conference which several churches will be attending in May.

Thank you for your prayers and support!
